

Barn Owls

Art
Clay Tea Cups

Tea picker Needed!

Do you want to work while looking at amazing views? Perhaps you love the view of mountains? Well come to our magnificent tea plantation, where you can work with the lovely hot sun on your back, and meet some new fabulous friends. In this excellent tea plantation you will work with friendly, helpful people. They are called the dream team, so come and join them!

Each and every day, you will need to pick as many tea leaves as possible since the more tea leaves you have the more the generous the overseer will be! Sometimes he may increase your salary and even allow you to go home earlier than usual (if wanted). The majestic mountains will blow your mind as they reach up for the cloudless sky. The wonderful fragrance from the exquisite tea leaves will tickle your senses and delight you with their sweet aroma. You'll be amazed at how quickly you will pick up the skills needed for this job, you will soon become what we call a rapid picker. If you ever try to get to the end of the ocean of leaves on the job (it is that long) you won't get back in time for your leaf check!

English
Persuasive Writing

I would like to be a kit manager for the football team Man City.

Jigsaw
We have researched and had time to think about future careers.

I would like to be a teacher then a fashion designer.

My dream job is to be a koala keeper, because I love animals and want to care for them so they don't get treated badly in the wild and don't get very big cuts and bruises.

I would like to be an Athlete because I can never sit still and am always active. I love to run and do exercise in my free time.

Step 1. Always keep practising sprinting and long distance.

Step 2. Never give up

Step 3. Always have fun. :

Geography
Layers of the Rainforest

