Key Strand	Living: Religious practices and ways of living; questions about values and commitments
Overview of the Unit of Work	Pupils will learn in depth from Christianity and from Humanism (a non-religious way of life) Pupils will secure their understanding of what a non-religious way of life means, considering the similarities and differences to Christianity. Pupils will explore the meanings of some big moral concepts (e.g. fairness, freedom, truth and honesty) and what they look like in everyday life. In addition, pupils will consider the fact that values can clash and that doing the right thing can be difficult at times.
Prior Learning & Vocabulary	In the Year 6 Autumn term, pupils have deepened their understanding of the values of Christians, including Christian views on generosity, being charitable and how they show devotion to God. Vocabulary: Christian, Christianity, God, Jesus, Bible, religion, atheist, agnostic, Humanist, Muslim, Islam, Qur'an, Agnostic, Atheist, worship, belief, scripture
Sticky Knowledge	Pupils will learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Christian explanation of why people are good and bad • The Humanist 'code for living' and how it might help people to be good • The Christian codes for living (linked to Jesus' commandments) • About the how the values we hold can impact our lives
New Vocabulary	rules: set of explicit regulations or principles that guide conduct or behaviour principles: a rule of conduct that is based on beliefs of what is right and what is wrong justice: the principle that people receive that which they deserve in support of fair treatment
Post Learning	Y6 Summer term: pupils will explore the religious and non-religious beliefs of the afterlife and how choices made in life will impact them in death.
