

Year 6: Is it better to express your religion in arts and architecture or in charity and generosity.
Wednesday 2nd December

RE WALT: Show understanding of the value of art (B3)

WALT links to Second aim - Express ideas and insights about the nature, significance and impact of religions and world-views

Task 1

Apply your writing skills to answer the following questions.
Do you think artists are worshipping as they paint?
Are they expressing their beliefs about God and Jesus in their art?

Task 2

Choose a Bible quote to use to make a work of art of your own. Think carefully about how your art work symbolises Jesus. Write your quote below.

My quote:

"Do to others what you want them to do to you." Jesus said.

Encouraging creativity and reflecting on spirituality

Challenge:

How valuable is your art work?

Consider the value of your work from the perspective of different groups of people.

Year 6

Task one:

I think they are worshipping Jesus as they are focusing on him whilst they are painting. Furthermore, they have portrayed Jesus in a positive light which suggests that the artists are respecting and appreciating his generosity by painting him.

↓ Responding sensitively to ways of expressing identity and belonging (B2)

Challenge:

I think my work would be very valuable to a Christian as it is celebrating and appreciating the generosity of Jesus. However my work wouldn't be as valuable to a Hindu or Buddhist person as it isn't someone from their religion.

Well done
Connie 😊

↓ Noticing and responding sensitively to some similarities between different religions and worldviews (B3)
