

Sooty Owls

For World Book Week, the children wrote a biography for a chosen footballer.

Name: Patrick James Bamford
Date of birth: 5th September 1995
Nationality: English
Position: Striker

Patrick James Bamford is one of England's most best players. He has scored 13 goals this season. He has won loads of trophies and medals over the years. He started his career at Middlesbrough, going out making his debut on the 31st of December 2011 at the age of 16. 1 month later he found the back for a price of 5 million pounds.

Patrick James Bamford was born on the 5th September 1995. He grew up in England with his parents. He plays for Leeds and at the age of 12 he signed his professional future. He spent most of his career.

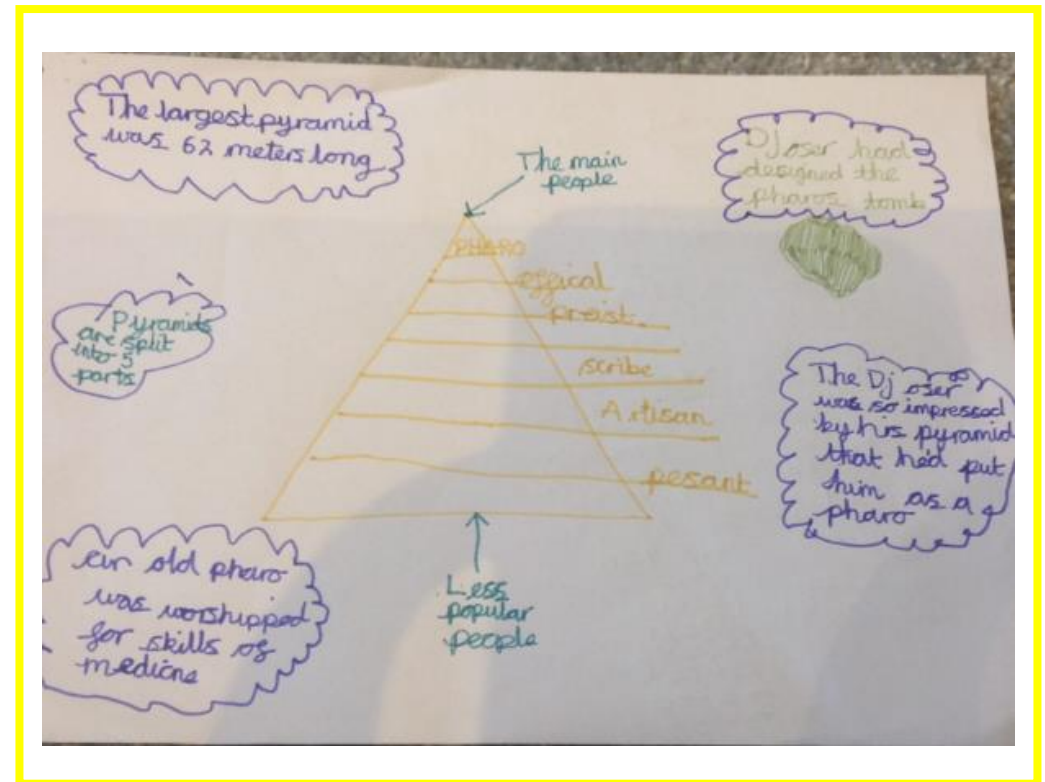

Patrick James Bamford is a Striker and he's played 13 games this season. He has scored 13 goals and his number is 17. Patrick James Bamford's career continues as he represents his country on and on, on many occasions.

Interesting fact:
He donated money so that schools could buy iPads and computers so children could

NAME: PETER SHILTON
DATE OF BIRTH: 18TH SEPTEMBER
COUNTRY: ENGLAND
POSITION: GOALKEEPER

Peter Shilton is a former professional footballer who plays for England. He is one of the best goalkeepers to play for his country. He currently holds the record for playing more games for the England men's team than anyone else earning 125 caps.

During World Book Week, the children were asked to create a place they could go on an adventure to. They then wrote a setting description.

Here is an example of the children's history world. They created a hierarchy pyramid to demonstrate the different groups of societies in Ancient Egypt.