IMAGINE A WILD ADVENTURE
with KATHERINE RUNDELL

KATHERINE RUNDELL
SKYSTEPPERS

Still walking through the beautiful diamond blue arch way me and my stone friend caught a glimpse of the two shimmering suns. When I hovered my hand over the blossom wall I was surprised that it felt like a golden velvet blanket. As we got to the end of the arch-way I saw dragons of different breeds getting set free. There were colossal mountains surrounding us on the land that went on for miles.

The entrance to the cave was like a ghostly, back hole. I had butterflies. Then, my ears picked up, a screaming noise was heard all around us. As we walked through the creaky, black cave, we saw vines around the roof and water gushing down the walls. While we walked, our feet kept on crunching. I looked down and saw bones. I felt like someone was watching us. Then, a ghost popped out of the wall. We ran as fast as we could whilst the creepy ghost followed us.
